

Advance Diploma in School Operation & Management

- PG Diploma in Operations Management deals with management of resources in the production of goods and services
- This course is designed to impart skills related to operations, supply chain, transportation etc of a company especially in the manufacturing industry.
- The course trains students who aim in keeping operations smooth, and keep essential structure of organisations, and to deliver quality performance and productivity.
- The objective of this course is to develop an understanding of the role of production and operations management in firms' success.
- It is offered in India by many business schools and charges an average fee of INR 50,000 to INR 2 lakh.

Syllabus

Semester I	Semester II
Principles of Management	Strategic Management
Financial Accounting	Cost Accounting
Fundamentals of Communication and Interview Preparation	The Integrative Manager
Human Resource Management	Mastering the Interview and Networking Skills