भारत सरकार पंजीकृत. Certification in Financial Accounting

Description

Financial Accounting refers to information describing the financial resources, obligations, and activities of an economic entity. The term financial position is used to describe an entity's financial resources and obligations at one point in time, and the term results of operations is used to describe its financial activities during the year.

Financial Accounting information is designed primarily to assist investors and creditors in deciding where to place their scarce investment resources. Such decisions are important to society, as they determine which industries and companies and even countries will receive the financial resources necessary for growth, and which will not. Many other decision makers also make use of financial accounting information. A company's manager and employees constantly need such information in order to run and control business operations.

All types of organizations and also individuals develop and use financial accounting information in conducting their daily activities. But the concepts of financial accounting are most highly developed and clearly defined in the business world. Therefore, this course focuses upon financial accounting information relating to profit-oriented business organizations.

This graduate course introduces the basic concepts and principles of accounting for preparing the financial statements such as income statement (financial performance) and balance sheet (financial position). The course focuses on detailed understanding of accounting information system, accounting concepts, accounting principles, accounting cycle, recording of transactions, and financial statement concepts.
